Agent Experience

With many years of experience, Lourdes Mendoza is a bilingual Real Estate agent in Ecuador. She learns her English skills in UK while she studies and works in the hospitality industry. She develops her English skills in Ecuador working with several expats and also her husband Jonathan Mueller, Co-Founder of Passport Realty. She specializes in client service and sale properties in the middle coastal area and Cuenca. She also has developed her skills on interior photography and videography. She also works with other agents to accomplish to find your new holidays or permanent home. She likes to spend time with family and very excited about the new adventure to be a new mom. She loves the local coastal cuisine and "ceviche" is her favorite. She likes outdoors walkings, hiking and recently started as a beginner runner.
